The body is the female head from 06 Chiba クワガタ male specimen demonstrates

2012.10.2 21:39

Part of the head is a male stag beetle found in Ibaraki Prefecture unusual is that the female body, the specimen will be exhibited in the village of Sakae-cho, Chiba Prefectural Boso from October 6. Adviser to the biological research community high school Xiling Narita Prefectural responsible for the exhibition, (40) is "stag hermaphroditic with upper and lower divided nicely as this, is not the discovery of the first in the country," she said teachers Toshio Shimizu.

To exhibit sawtoothed stag beetle of about five centimeters in length. There is a large jaw to the head which is a feature of the male long, is that part of the body can be seen, such as characteristics of the female genitalia and front legs.

(17) is found in the wooded area of the prefecture city Ushiku you Natsuki Hirayama June this year, the first two years of high school Ryugasaki Ibaraki Prefecture, collected. Hirayama brought to the place where you shop insects acquaintance, I had to show the real state of being alive Shimizu teachers by chance, were present in the store.

There is good stag chromosomal abnormalities "is left and right were divided into male and female because, I had not thought just type head that male and real, once, it is unusual to whether Deaeru was very surprised.-In-a-lifetime and "existence, Shimizu teacher speaks excitedly.

Place through the editorial department of the magazine insects in the Tokyo metropolitan area, I had seen several experts, I got the results of the analysis "is very close to the biological also has the ability to lay eggs in the female" with. The future that are scheduled presentations and in professional journals, as well to the recording of pictures of them.

And I'll have seen a lot of people to stag this rare, exhibitions keep the specimen with the cooperation of Mr. Hirayama, staff and teachers Shimizu is in charge of the exhibition of freshwater fish and insects - the "nature of village living life and" Satoyama premiered as the centerpiece.

The head is male, hermaphroditic sawtoothed stag beetle with characteristics of the female body and legs (center). Normal male left, right (provided Toshio Shimizu high school teacher Xiling Prefectural Narita) Female
