

Topic titles of Kitamura's experience in evacuation life

Date	Topic titles
(0) Introduction	How it started on March 12, 2011
(1) Received April 5	1. Our evacuation camp Big Palette 2. Living space 3. Baths 4. Meals 5. Shopping for daily needs
(2) Received April 5	1. Transportation 2. Telephones, TV 3. How to kill time 4. First-aid station 5. People's mentality towards NPP
(3) Received April 6	1. People's mentality towards TEPCO 2. Message boards 3. Town emergency headquarters 4. Optional hotel life 5. Pets
(4) Received April 6	1. Lavatory and toilets in the Big Palette 2. Radiation screening for newcomers 3. The reality of the evacuation operation
(5) Received April 7	1. Disaster-victim certificates 2. Volunteers for help 3. The home town now
(6) Received April 7	1. "Voluntary evacuation," a confusing notification 2. Hygienic concerns in the Big Palette 3. Outdated bread 4. Schools
(7) Received April 8	1. Cash for daily life 2. A tragedy 3. Stresses and trouble 4. Fire crew
(8) Received April 11	1. Information sources 2. Taxes 3. Afterquakes 4. Hierarchical relation: power relationship from top to bottom
(9) Received April 12	1. Nursing functions upon evacuation 2. Our anxiety 3. "Facilities non grata" 4. Escape routes in the area
(10) Received April 12	1. Two volumes of inhabitant registration 2. Coaches for evacuation 3. People are scattered 4. Traffic to Tokyo 5. What is a WBC?
(11) Received April 12	1. Telephones unable to connect when in real need 2. Noro virus 3. Short home return restricted 4. Job hunting by the refugees
(12) Received April 12	1. What puzzles me on Day 1 2. A tent bath 3. No washing machines 4. Families in line for a rent house on town budgets 5. Parking lots
(13) Received April 12	1. Children to school 2. US$2,000 per month per family 3. A story of a family on a hotel top floor

	4. Rent-house markets in Koriyama 5. Personalities of nuclear people are challenged
(14) Received April 14	6. “Pet bottle” blankets 7. Lessons: Unrealistic “Assumptions” 8. Life style one month after the accident 9. Insincere wording in apology
(15) April 13	1. “Radiation levels being stable or lowered” answers to refugees? 2. Causes of anxiety 3. Pets (2) 4. “I-idade-mura is better!” 5. Something questionable
(16) April 14	1. Corporate employees and shopkeepers 2. Controversial message of Prime Minister Kan 3. A reality of nuclear disasters 4. Where the town goes?
(17) April 15	1. Loss of information connection 2. Decentralization and networking
(18) April 16	1. Aid station 2. Washing machines, not yet 3. What is compensated? 4. Posters as administration media
(19) April 16	1. Knowhow from experience 2. Freedoms lost 3. Temporary residences
(20) April 16	1. NHK report, too late! 2. School life of children: A story of a grand-kid of my friend 3. Cardboard houses
(21) April 16	1. Why evacuation in Koriyama? 2. Washing machines delivered two weeks behind 3. Goods to develop for evacuation life (1): mats 4. Evacuation termination wanted
(22) April 17	1. Goods to develop for evacuation life (2): Partitions 2. NHK claims, but ... 3. Town office must not forget ... 4. Tsunami impacts on my hometown Tomioka-cho 5. A slight hope ahead?
(23) April 18	1. Population density lowered? 2. Posters 3. A sense of self-composure 4. Working volunteers at night for sorting the commodities 5. Road damage by the Earthquakes
(24) April 18	1. Advance payment of US$10,000 as compensation 2. Application for donations 3. Living space moved in the building
(25) April 18	1. Threats of afterquakes
(26) April 19	1. Who is willing to spend his/her own money?! 2. Free legal advice 3. Schedule follow-up chart, please
(27) April 19	1. Nursing cares 2. Review once, please 3. Even if we could return home, ...
(28) April 20	1. Advance compensation payment 2. Evacuation is not compulsory, no penalty 3. Volunteer TV-talents and media 4. Our town can survive?
(29) April 21	1. Home return rush 2. Job seeking or not? 3. How the compensation will be paid?

(30) April 22	1. Information wanted 2. Controlled access
(31) April 22	1. Living space improved in the Big Palette 2. Rent houses not popular 3. First meal from a convenience shop
(32) April 23	1. A hotel life: A story of my friend staying at an onsen hotel 2. Too much formalities in rules 3. Big Palette Community
(33) April 26	1. Why can we stand the evacuation life full of hardships?
(34) April 27	1. Working spirits being lost: A concern of my friend, a shopkeeper 2. Renting of an own apartment was a mistake? 3. Concerns ahead
(35) April 28 - End	1. A life never experienced before